SOUTH LANGHORNE PILOT ONE OF FIRST AMERICANS TO TAKE PART IN RAID ON GERMANY; "GAVE THEM A PLASTERING"

1st Lt. Joseph A. Downing, Jr., Piloted Flying Fortress — A Graduate of Langhorne-Middletown High — In Service Since October, 1941

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Jan. 28.—A South Langhorne man, 1st Lt. Joseph A. Downing, Jr., was pilot of one of the Flying Fortresses which took part yesterday in the first raid made by American bombers on Germany.

Downing, son of Burgess and Mrs. Joseph A. Downing, of this borough, was in the wave of Fortresses which left a base in England to bomb the huge naval base at Wilhelmshaven. Only one Fortress failed to return.

Downing, with other Americans who participated in the flight and subsequent bombings, summed up the experience thus: "We caught them with their pants down, and it looks like we gave them a hell of a plastering."

Lt. Downing, who is 28 years of age, is a graduate of Langhorne-Middletown high school. Prior to entering the service he was employed by Rohm & Haas Company, Bristol, in the plexigum department.

On the 1st of October, 1941, he joined the service as an aviation cadet. He trained in various centers throughout the United States, receiving his wings and commission on April 29, 1942, at Victoria, Texas. He was elevated to a first lieutenant last November. On the 10th of December he was assigned to overseas duty and flew a Flying Fortress to England.

At Columbus, O., last October, Lt. Downing married Miss Gretchen Vogel, Philadelphia.

Lt. Downing at one time played baseball with the Ancient Order of Hibernians team, in the Lower Bucks County League.

The U. S. bomber boys, taking part in their first raid beyond conquered Nazi territory, struck deep into Germany in the daylight raid. They dropped tons of high explosives on Wilhelmshaven and Emden in the opening blow of the "unconditional surrender" policy which had been announced following the conference of Allied leaders at Casablanca.

This was the first direct stroke of America against Hitler's own Reich.

The Americans, following the raids, stated they made a mowing of the Wilhelmshaven docks and naval installations, and possibly hit a warship anchored there. On their return to England they flew over a large Nazi convoy, scurrying for cover, but their bombs were spent.

As the Flying Fortresses and Liberators flew their longest over-water course since arrival in the European theatre of war, they encountered light anti-aircraft fire, and brushed off some pursuit attacks.

Pony Killed By Train; Lad Has Miraculous Escape

CORNWELLS MANOR, Jan. 28.—"Jerry" Lepping, aged six, of Tacony, had a narrow escape from death on Sunday when the pony he was riding got out of control, ran to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, and stood powerless before an approaching fast freight train when the pony's hind foot became wedged in the tracks.

Yelling for help as he saw the train bearing down on him, "Jerry" was aided by a trackman who pulled the frightened boy from the pony's back when the engine was barely 50 feet away.

The pony, a Shetland named "Buster," was killed instantly, its body being hurled in front of a passenger express travelling west, the same direction in which the freight was being operated.

Men, women and children, waiting for a local train, watched the spectacle in horror, as the train bore down on pony and child; and saw the boy too powerless to aid himself, so great was his fright. Mrs. Mary Gottsabend ran down the track toward the approaching train and waved her scarf to attract attention of the engineer. The train was brought to a quick stop but not until after striking the pet pony, which was owned by "Jimmy" Knight.

The railroad employee who rushed to "Jerry," and pulled him from the saddle, pushed the boy out of the path of the engine, the lad escaping by only a few seconds.

N. B. Keim's Sons Firm Absorbed by Palmer Co.

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Jan. 28.—An announcement made today verifies recent rumors that the business of N. B. Keim's Sons has been absorbed by the Henry Palmer Company. The business property, owned by N. Robert Keim, located on the Lincoln Highway, will continue to be operated as a retail yard under the management of the Palmer Company, although the office will be closed at that location in the near future and all affairs handled in the present offices of the parent organization on Bellevue avenue at Langhorne station.

In making the announcement Henry P. Palmer, president of the company, pointed out that there will be no interruption of service, and every effort will be made to provide Keim's former customers with fuel. He stated, "Few people realize how difficult it has been for the retail coal merchants to operate in the face of present fuel shortages. Now that the strike is ended, our entire organization pledges itself to maintain the same reliable service built up over the last 40 years."

The Henry Palmer Co. was founded by Henry Palmer in 1902. Upon the death of his father in 1935, Henry P. Palmer became president of the organization.

SLEET STORM HOLDS UP 3 BUS ROUTES EARLY TODAY; DUE TO CONDITION OF HIGHWAYS, DEEMED UNWISE TO OPERATE

Newtown-Bristol and Morrisville-Phila. Buses Start Operating at 8.30—Minor Accidents Experienced by Many Motorists As Cars Skid—Mercury Remains in Twenties

The snow-storm of yesterday, followed by sleet during the morning hours today, coupled with low temperatures, caused cessation of bus line operations in this area, delayed war workers and others from getting to their places of employment, and caused numerous minor accidents as cars and trucks skidded.

The Neibauer bus lines operating between Bristol and Newtown, and between Morrisville and Philadelphia city line, as well as the Bristol local route, did not operate between five o'clock and 8.30 this morning, due, according to company officials, to the slippery condition of highways.

"A bus operating between Bristol and Philadelphia city line would under ordinary conditions require but 35 minutes for the trip. Under conditions such as found this morning, due to sleet, the buses would have required from 60 to 75 minutes for the same run, and at the same time risk chance of accidents. Rather than have the buses tied up along the highways we deemed it advisable to wait until conditions improved."

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Another Heavy Air Attack On Germany

London—The Anglo-American air force campaign to "bust Germany wide open" moved forward today with another heavy attack by British four-motored Lancaster and Halifax bombers on industrial areas in the Rhineland. Six of the huge British planes were lost, indicating that hundreds took part in the sortie.

Preliminary reports of the new attack said that several hundred tons of high explosive and incendiary bombs had been dropped on Dusseldorf.

The raid lasted for twenty minutes. Heavy cloud formations made it difficult to assess results, but the glare of force fires were seen and the attack was believed a most effective one.

Last night's raid followed the first all-American attack upon Germany proper by Boeing Flying Fortresses and Consolidated Liberators. In paying tribute to this daring daylight assault, British Air Marshal Sir Arthur Travers, chief of the RAF bomber command, expressed conviction that between them British and American fliers will "bust Germany wide open."

Eighth Army Advances

Cairo—The British Middle East high command reported today that forces of the Eighth Army advancing westward through Libya are in contact with Axis rearguard forces in the Sabratha area between Ez Sautia and the port of Zuzara.

Air activity was said to be continuing on a small scale. Planes from the Middle East successfully attacked rail communications in Southern Italy Tuesday night, it was revealed.

HAWAII'S TROUBLES

After more than thirteen months of the most rigid military rule, the half-million residents of Hawaii are naturally beginning to get restive against prolonging of what some of their officials characterize as the suspension of the entire Bill of Rights with the exception of freedom of worship.

They feel that the time has come to lighten the restraint they have been under since the attack on Pearl Harbor. After a recent conference with Gov. Ingram M. Stainbeck, President Roosevelt gave welcome assurance that some portion of civil authority would be restored.

Any formula that can be worked out to relieve the citizens of the Territory of Hawaii involves the Interior and Justice departments, as well as compliance of War and Navy. Secretary Knox is on record as saying that such a formula already exists. Interior and Justice Department officials felt at the time that the then governor Joseph B. Poindexter, in view of wide war powers the legislature had conferred upon him, was too precipitate in inviting complete military rule. Governor Stainbeck thus has an entirely empty title, complete control being in the hands of the military governor, Lt. Gen. Delos C. Emmons, who shows no indication of relaxing his grip.

A temperate editorial in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, expressing pride in the co-operation given by the people generally to the military government, irksome as it has been, and appealing for return of some semblance of civil government, was accompanied on the opposite page by a long statement by General Emmons stating that danger still threatens.

SOUTHERN EUROPE

Allied commanders in the Mediterranean area recently conferred at Gibraltar. The sending of several more powerful units of the British navy eastward through the Hercules gate followed. Now Lord Gort has arrived in London to report on his command at Malta, and the Allied air commanders in North Africa have held a prolonged conference.

The result will be not only a sharp stepping up of Allied air activity in Tunisia and Tripoli in an effort to liquidate Axis troops in that area before Spring, but perhaps an early spring three-dimensional campaign against Southern Europe.

As these plans are pointedly revealed, and the clearing weather permits the more frequent ascent of Allied bombers over the German-held coastal strip of Tunisia and Rommel's remnants still retreating westward, the Germans become more frenzied in their building of a deep defense zone across Southern France and through the Balkans.

Marseilles is reported to be a particularly troublesome spot for the Germans, and as the troops of both General Giraud and of the Free French press toward an actual junction in North Africa, and the spirit of French independence flashes up the Rhone, the inevitable reunion of some of the more powerful French factions comes steadily nearer.

Meanwhile, the German army is reported to be fighting a domestic battle with the Nazi Gestapo. The Army is alleged to be seeking withdrawal in some sectors of Gestapo agents who reportedly have turned machine guns on troops and even officers proscribed by the Nazi party leaders.

slippery highway, the two cars crashing. Paglione was treated at Harriman Hospital for incised wound of the right side of his head, the wound requiring stitches. All were brought to Bristol by passersby, and Penna. Motor Police at South Langhorne barracks were notified.

The glaze which covered highways Tuesday night prior to the snowfall caused a big truck-trailer to jack-knife on a down-grade of the Lincoln Highway below South Langhorne and block eastbound traffic for three hours.

The truck-trailer, owned by the Saul Trucking Company, of Philadelphia, driven by Harry Irons, also of Philadelphia, was proceeding west at 10:15 when it began to skid. Irons told the Pennsylvania Motor Police that he applied his brakes and the trailer section whipped around forcing the front of the truck onto a bank across the roadway.

Before he could bring the vehicle under control, Irons explained, it whirled around again and the trailer plunged into the bank. With the front part and several wheels damaged, the machine could not be moved under its own power.

Officer J. D. Forestin, of the Langhorne station of the motor police, investigated and directed alternating east and west-bound traffic around the truck-trailer while it was being removed from its position astride three lanes of the highway. It was removed.

Announce New Uniform Air Raid Protection Regulations

These regulations were issued by appropriate Service Command Headquarters at Boston, New York, Baltimore, Atlanta, and the Military District Headquarters in Washington, D. C. The principal features of the new regulations which were approved by the War Department and concurred in by the Office of Civilian Defense are:

1. A preliminary audible public "Blue" warning signal is prescribed, consisting of a steady blast lasting approximately two (2) minutes on air raid horns, sirens or whistles. This signal, which ordinarily will be the first public audible warning, means "Probability of enemy air raid—Enemy planes appear to be headed in your direction—Get ready." Civilian Defense Forces Mobilize. Lights in homes, business houses, certain industrial firms, and all but certain street lights and traffic signals will be blacked out. Pedestrians may proceed. Automobiles may move with lights on low beam. War production and transportation may continue provided certain precautionary steps have been taken.

2. An audible public "Red" air raid signal is prescribed consisting of a series of short blasts on air raid horns or whistles or the warbling notes of the siren. This signal, which corresponds in general to the present air raid alarm, means "Enemy planes are practically overhead." All remaining lights are blacked out except a few authorized emergency lights. Persons take shelter. Traffic except for emergency vehicles stops. The public is warned that in some cases the "Red" signal will be the first audible public signal whenever there has been insufficient time for sounding the preliminary "Blue" signal.

3. A "Blue" signal will always follow each "Red" signal after immediate danger has passed. It returns the community to the conditions prescribed for the "Blue" signal. The community is thus prepared to return to the "Red" without delay if the enemy raiders return.

4. No audible "All-Clear" signal is prescribed. The "All-Clear" will be indicated by turning on those street lights which have been off during the "Blue," by public radio announcements and telephone, or other communication with warden posts and by local police. A community may adopt an audible "All-Clear" signal provided that it is not the same as the "Blue" or "Red" signals and does not resemble those signals so as to result in confusion.

A special feature of the new regulations prescribes that certain radio stations, on selected frequencies to be announced publicly, will remain on the air to broadcast official bulletins during the periods of the "Blue" and "Red" signals.

The new regulations prescribe special authorizations for essential war production and war transportation to insure a minimum of time loss and interference during the period of the "Blue" signal.

The new regulations reduce to a minimum the period of time of the "Red" signal by providing an additional "Blue" signal permitting an earlier return to the conditions under which essential war work and other activities may be resumed.

The regulations also specify that under no conditions will lights in actual use be left unattended at any time. Unattended lights in homes, business houses, or industrial locations are defined as potentially dangerous and therefore unlawful.

The Office of Civilian Defense recommends the voluntary adoption of the new regulations by all states except those in the Western Defense Command. The Western Defense Command already is operating under a uniform system of air raid precaution regulations adapted to its own needs and approved by the War Department. In urging adoption of the new Eastern Military Area regulations in all the area between the Eastern Defense Command and the Western Defense Command, the Office of Civilian Defense points out that uniformity is of greatest importance.
